Schlaifer and Logan Ready for 10-Round Bout This Afternoon at Fight Shed

"Kid" Will Enter Favorite Over Welter Rival

Good Card of Preliminary Scraps on Douglas County Legion's Program.

"Kid" Schlaifer and "Bud" Logan, Omaha welterweight knuckle whirlers, are rarin' to go. These two gong tonight that will send them on their way in a ten-round bout-a bout which is more of a grudge affair than just a common ordinary battle with leather gloves. Both men finished their hard training two days ago, and yesterday spent the day taking things easy. Schlaifer and his squad of trainers declare up and down that Logan in in for a beating, while Logan and his gang are cocksure of handing the "Kid" another beating in ten

Schlaifer Favorite.

Schlaifer will enter the ring a two to one favorite over Logan. A few of the wise "birds" seem to think that the bout will go to a draw, while others are ready to back Schlaifer to the roof of the ol' fight

If I were making a guess after a short glimpse at the situation it would be that Leonard will win in six or seven rounds by a knockout. watched Leonard battle with Britton a fortnight ago and he looked bad, but the Kansas people who figure that dope are figuring wrong. Leonard looked bad not because he had gone back to any extent but because Britton outsmarted him and refused to let him box his natural style, threw him out of po-sition and made him seem amateurish at times, but Kansas is not a Britton in generalship. will dictate the style of fighting in Chicago, July 3.-William Tilden this mixup.
